This book presents the churches of Thessaly, Central Greece, Euboea and the Peloponnese, dating from the beginning of the twelfth century to the year 1204. These churches form a significant part of the monumental wealth of Greece and an important chapter in the history of Byzantine architecture. The authors engage in a systematic research of medieval church-building in Greece, and not just a simple registration of the monuments, focusing on their architecture and rich sculptural decoration as well as on issues relating to typology, morphology and construction.

The Publication may be obtained either by visiting the “ALPHA BANK – CULTURE store” (12-14 Pesmazoglou Street, ATHENS) and the e-shop Our e-shop \(alphapolitismos.gr\) or by placing an order via telephone or e-mail (tel. +30 210 326 2465, e-mail: infopolitismos@alpha.gr).
