

Alpha Supporting Services envisions a work environment suitable for its activities and provided services, as well as safe and healthy for all its employees, visitors, contractors, and associates.

In this context, Alpha Supporting Services sustains an Occupational Health & Safety (OH&S) Management System according to ISO 45001:2018 requirements and all applicable Health & Safety (H&S) legislation. Moreover, Alpha Supporting Services provides all required resources (in terms of personnel, infrastructure and training needed) to maintain and improve its OH&S Management System.

Alpha Supporting Services is also committed to:

- Comply with all applicable H&S legislation
- Put effort on continuous improvement of OH&S Management System and thereby H&S conditions for its employees, contractors, associates, and visitors
- Continuous consultation with employees and their active participation in attainment of established OH&S objectives
- Eliminate OH&S hazards or minimize OH&S risks

Alpha Supporting Services through the implementation of its OH&S Management System aims at:

- Eliminating accidents
- Minimizing near-misses
- Training and awareness of its personnel and associates on OH&S

Alpha Supporting Services informs all interested parties on the contents of its OH&S Policy and relevant actions and initiatives taken.
