The Catalogue “Dimitris Galanis. The Illustrated Books”, which accompanied the exhibition of the same title, is the result of the research conducted jointly by the Alpha Bank Art Collection and the National Bank of Greece Cultural Foundation (MIET) during the period 2008-2013. The primary material for this research were the books illustrated by the artist, which belong to the rich collections of Alpha Bank and MIET, while pieces of evidence from the Museum of Montmartre in Paris (La Société Le Vieux Montmartre) were also used. Books, albums and printed matter illustrated by the artist between 1904 and 1962 were catalogued.

The publication may be obtained either by visiting the “ALPHA BANK – CULTURE store” (12-14 Pesmazoglou Street, Athens) and the e-shop Our e-shop \(alphapolitismos.gr\), or by placing an order by phone or e-mail (tel. +30 210 326 2465, e-mail: infopolitismos@alpha.gr).
