

Press Release

Alpha Bank continues to top Private Banking rankings, with new international distinctions

The Bank garnered two distinctions at this year's Euromoney Awards, affirming its leading role in the country's Private Banking sector

Alpha Bank has once again affirmed its leading position in the Private Banking sector, winning top distinctions at the internationally recognized Euromoney Private Banking Awards 2026. For the 8th consecutive year, the Bank was named "Best Private Bank – Greece" by international institutions, while it was once again recognized for its expertise in Discretionary Portfolio Management.

The award ceremony took place recently in London and was attended by leading figures in the international financial sector. The Bank's Private Banking was represented by Andreas Katsogiannos, Director of Private Banking, Lazaros Vogiazas, Head of Central and Northern Greece Market Area, Panagiota Chanaki, Senior Private Banker, Maria Mouzaki-Goga, Senior Private Banker, and Marietta Valtara, Private Banker, who received, on behalf of the Bank, the following two awards:

- Best Private Bank – Greece
- Best for Discretionary Portfolio Management

The Euromoney judging panel singled out Alpha Bank for expanding its offering of investment options, strengthening international partnerships and accelerating the digital transformation of its services. Special mention was made of the Discretionary Portfolio Management services, where Alpha Bank recorded steadily rising returns, underpinned by a robust investment governance framework and continuous market monitoring.

Over 30 years of expertise and success

Alpha Bank was the first bank to introduce Private Banking services in the Greek market in 1993. With a steadfast focus on innovation, transparency and a customer-centric approach, the Bank continues to strengthen its position as a trusted partner for the management and growth of its clients' assets, while this new international recognition further solidifies its strategic position in Greece and internationally.

Andreas Katsogiannos, Private Banking Director of the Bank, said: "These distinctions are an unequivocal recognition of our commitment to providing high-quality Private Banking services, focused on our clients' needs. This success is down to our people, whose expertise and dedication contribute every day to the growth of the Bank's Wealth Management business."