Together with the children at the Museum and the Theatre

Under the Alpha Bank Corporate Social Responsibility programme “Together with the children at the Museum and the Theatre”, children from six children's Homes and Foundations attended theatre shows in Thessaloniki and Athens, on Sunday, December 10 and Saturday, December 17, 2017, respectively.

In Athens, children from SOS Children's Village in Vari, Lyreio Children's Foundation and “Friends of the Child” Charity Association attended the performance of the play “Two Stubborn Ladles”, at the Railway Carriage Theatre “To Treno Sto Rouf”.

In Thessaloniki, children from the Association of Friends of Children with Rheumatic Diseases, “Melissa” Orphanage for Girls and SOS Children's Village in Plagiari, Thessaloniki, saw Karmen Rouggeri's play “The Magic Flute”, at Thessaloniki Concert Hall.

During the events, volunteers from the Bank's Personnel distributed Christmas gifts to the children present.

Since the launch, in 2015, of the programme “Together with the children at the Museum and the Theatre”, children from various children's Homes and Foundations have attended a total of 21 theatre shows and guided museum tours.
