

“The defacements that hurt”

In the context of the Bank’s Corporate Social Responsibility and specifically of the programme “The defacements that hurt”, the actions for the restoration and the conservation of emblematic buildings and monuments and their surroundings were continued in 2017, as presented below:

- Restoring the building of the Athens Conservatoire and cleaning the surrounding area, during the "Alpha Bank Group Volunteer Day" (18.6.2017).
- Restoring damages at the parks of Nea Paralia in Thessaloniki, in the context of the “Alpha Bank Group Volunteer Day”. Alpha Bank’s Personnel worked together with volunteers from Anatolia College and YMCA of Thessaloniki.
- Cleaning the Royal Theatre of Northern Greece and the National Theatre of Northern Greece.
