Together...in environmental actions in Athens and Thessaloniki!

In the context of its Corporate Social Responsibility activities for protecting the environment, Alpha Bank organised, on Sunday, February 28, 2016, environmental events, in Athens and Thessaloniki.

The event, carried out in Athens, aimed at preparing the historic olive forest of Kaisariani, for the Olive Picking event to be conducted at the end of the year, in collaboration with Philodassiki Enossi Athinon. In parallel, the children had the opportunity to participate in an educational activity for the maintenance and taking care of the olive trees.

In Thessaloniki, environmental and educational actions pertaining to Ecological Agriculture and Mediterranean Cellar were carried out at the American Farm School premises. The children also participated in educational activities, entitled "Playing with Milk" and "Discover the Farm" through a big "treasure hunt".
